Pep Rally

"It was fun getting to be a part of putting this pep rally together." -Brittany Vitkovich

"The best part was playing football in the rain and mud, but beating the seniors was a huge confidence boost for us." -Jessica Gray

TIME TO MOVE IT OUTSIDE!!

Homecoming is a big deal for most people at Andrean High School. Students look forward to the first big DANCE to kick off the new school year. We also look forward to the dress down week that proceeds the dance that Saturday. A huge tradition that all Andrean students and faculty look forward to is the PEP RALLY held at the end of homecoming week. None of us can wait to cheer on the football players, watch the cheerleader's performance, and hear the INSPIRATIONAL words of the football coaches and captains. It helps to get all the students pumped up for the big game later that night.

This tradition has been here at Andrean for many years. This year, however, a new twist was added by student council's adviser, Ms. Torres. She wanted to bring back the outdoor pep rally, a tradition from years past.

This pep rally included things that can not be done in the gym: POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL, CAR SMASHING, and a BONFIRE. Everyone was very excited for this new addition to homecoming week. The pep rally started off with the powder puff football game. It was the freshmen versus the seniors and the sophomores versus the juniors. The seniors and juniors advanced to the championship game. The seniors put up a hard fight, but were defeated by the strong-willed juniors. Then a beat up car that was decorated with our rivals the KV Kougar's logos on it, was smashed by the Andrean students. This was the final event for the night because the weather would not permit a bonfire. Everyone enjoyed this new and fun experience. Hopefully, this will become a new tradition to Andrean's homecoming week for years to come.

Over the past four years, the volleyball program has had three different coaches. Ten seniors have stuck it through to play for each other. As Sam Long said, "No matter what was thrown at us, no matter what happened, we can look at each other at all times throughout these four years, and because we love volleyball and because we love each other, that's what got us through it." Their achievements were motivated for their love of the game and their love for each other.

"Playing number one singles this year was a challenge considering that this was my first year ever to play singles. I played a lot of very good players and ended up winning 8 of my matches - which was unexpected. I became a much better player over the course of the season and ended up making the finals in the Post Tribune Tournament."

"The most challenging problem we faced was when the team went into the post season with only seven girls; just enough to make a competing team. Heading on to semi-state was difficult because we were a very broken team, from a physical standpoint, but the drive that my team had helped us defy odds because no one expected that to happen."

AP BIOLOGY:

Science fair judging at Nativity of Our Savior

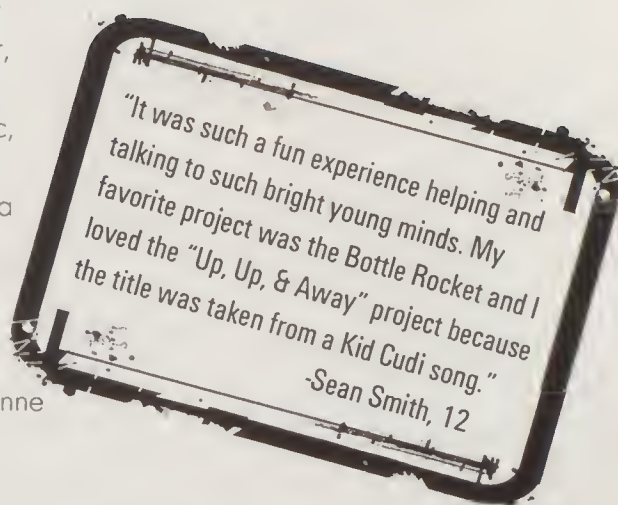

Continuing Mr. Gilby's tradition, Mr. Skinner's AP biology classes were taken on a field trip to Nativity of Our Savior grade school. The students were asked to view the projects, raise questions, and take a major part in ranking them. The class projects that were judged ranged from grades 3 through 8. It was important because the individual's project grade depended on the students' analysis of each project.

Peanut Butter Drive

This is the second year that Miss B and the Andrean High School family has held its peanut butter drive. People bring in peanut butter to their homerooms. This collected peanut butter is then donated to Northwest Indiana Food Depository. They in turn give it to the pack-a-backpack program all around Indiana. Each of the class homerooms have to collect and bring in as much peanut butter as they can. At the end of the month, everyone finds out which homerooms have brought in the most peanut butter. To the left are the winning homerooms of the this years peanut butter drive.

WINTER Theatre

"It was interesting to see the theatre from the aspect of a director as opposed to an actress." -Haley Swanson

"It was fun trying to diagnose the characters from Asylum since I have some knowledge of mental diseases." -Josh Thomas

READY, SET, ACTION!

It's winter time here at Andean and that means many things begin to change. And this does not just mean the weather. Time to switch it up for the new season of winter. New sports begin to take place such as bowling, wrestling, and basketball. Mr. Pagorek's choir class puts on their annual CHRISTMAS CONCERT with the help of the mass band. Students come out to hear some of Andean's finest singers sing in ANDREAN IDOL. Next big excitement of winter would include winter formal. The fun thing about this dance is that it's the girls turn to ask the guy. Hence the name turnabout. It is a day full of straighteners, curling irons, makeup, flowers, dresses, and tuxedos. This year NHS members held a charity BAGS TOURNAMENT. Students and teachers paid a few bucks to raise money for a donation that would be given to St. Jude's House for Abused Women.

Normally the theatre takes a break from plays since they have just end the fall one and have to take a rest before they begin to plan the spring musical. However, this year Andean decided to bring back the STUDENT DIRECTED plays. Not only one, but two shows. This decision was made by the two directors, juniors Haley Schragger and Haley Swanson. These two girls put on the two short shows OZ AND ASYLUM. These shows were completely student independent. Every set painted, light moved, goods baked, and sound added were done by the students themselves. They were able to do this only under the adult supervision of Mr. Pagorek and Mr. Mueller. A lot of time and work was put into these shows. They both were performed on two nights and were a great hit. Many fellow students came to see the performances. Many will now wonder...is this a one time thing or ANOTHER TRADITION to be restarted?

ASYLUM

Asylum and Oz were the first student directed shows at Andean since 2008. With the supervision of Mr. Mueller and Mr. Pagorek, who are in charge of the theatre department, they were directed by juniors Haley Schrager and Haley Swanson.

1) Junior Alexis Lopez, acting as a former pop star who thinks her life is a music video. 2) Senior Liz Salter, who played an agoraphobic girl charged with the murder of her roommate. 3) Senior Brad Seniw as a schizophrenic with a voodoo doll. 4) Junior Lucas Kalbfell, whose character is obsessed with performing "operations." 5) Sophomore Kathleen Salter, who played a girl kidnapped at a young age who becomes confused about her identity. 6) Asylum cast (from left to right): Kathleen Salter, Brad Seniw, Alexis Lopez, Samantha Long and Angela Agelson, Lucas Kalbfell, and Liz Salter. 7) Samantha Long, as an extremely OCD woman who believes she became pregnant through someone having unclean thoughts about her. 8) Angela Agelson, playing a girl driven crazy by the parents of her friends who died in a car accident. 9) Alexis Lopez. 10) Samantha Long. 11) Lucas Kalbfell. 12) Liz Salter. 13) Brad Seniw.

Instead of one full-length show, Schrager and Swanson directed two one-act shows that were each about 45 minutes long. Asylum is a series of interconnecting monologues told by the patients at an insane asylum. In Oz, Beth (the "Dorothy" of the show) gets lost in a dream very similar to the movie and has to find her way back home after her sister's death. They were performed on February 2 and February 4.

PROUD TO BE A NINER!

Great News Andrean! This was an exceptionally great year for Andrean High School's academic teams. Every single team qualified for the STATE FINALS competition this year. This includes Spell Bowl, Quiz Bowl, Academic Decathlon, and Academic Super Bowl. This would be that Andrean High School is one of only two high school, public or private, in the entire STATE OF INDIANA, that had all of its academic teams qualify for the state finals. All of the students that were a part of these teams studied very long and hard to achieve such an accomplishment. They all should be very PROUD of themselves and so should all the other members of the Andrean students and faculty. It is not easy to dedicate this much time for these teams, but these students did it. They showed all the schools in the state of Indiana that Andrean stands out from the crowd. Other than participating in all these competitions, students took part in other activities around Indiana. This includes the students that attended NCYC, National Catholic Youth Conference. This took place in Indianapolis this past year. The theme of this year was "Called to Glory." The students that went stayed on the trip out to INDIANAPOLIS for three days. Over the course of these three days, they were able to attend many different sessions that were valuable lessons for them to learn. They started off with a general session for all attendants. This weekend ended with a large mass. It was a fun filled weekend for everyone who attended. With all the excitement, everyone is proud to be a NINER.

Spring Break Trip 2012:

Greece & Italy

The much anticipated Spring Break trip was filled with great experiences that only can happen through Andean High School. The chaperons and students were led mainly by the guide Friedemann - the strict German from the traveling company Passports. Along the way we were met with many difficulties and problems that made the trip worth while. For example, our original ferry was unavailable due to a strike so we were upgraded to a businessman cruise where the current was rougher than expected. We also stayed an extra day in London due to technical difficulties with our original plane. Though we experienced bumps in the road, the beautiful sites and memories we've created will be with us forever.

One sight we saw hit home here at Andean: St. Andrew's cross. He is not only who Andean is named after, but his cross is the reason we have the little blue "X"'s on the doors. We also saw the shrine where one-third of his head is preserved.

Some of the sights we got to see were surreal. We never thought we'd get to see the Colosseum in Rome, Italy!

"My favorite project to work on this year for student council would definitely be Armageddon." - Chris Stazinski

One of student council's Co-Presidents Chris Stazinski.

MEET YOUR STUDENT COUNCIL

They plan your dances. They set up your dress down days. They hold assemblies to teach us valuable lessons. Who are these people? They are none other than your Andrean High School STUDENT COUNCIL! This group of people is voted for at the end of the previous school year by the students of the Andrean High School. This year, there was a tie between the running for president so Andrean's Student Council had two CO-PRESIDENTS, which were Grace Adair and Chris Stazinski. These two presidents and all the other members of student council make the school year fun for everyone. They put together the blood drives which HELP many people in need.

They also put together the most anticipated event of the year...ARMAGEDDON! The members of student council, with their Advisor Ms. Jackie Torres, plan all the events that go on during the students favorite time of year. Armageddon is a time when all the classes BATTLE against each other, in a fun way, to see what class is top. These people are the voice of the entire student body when it comes to talking to the faculty members of the Andrean High School family. They are aided by the CLASS OFFICERS. These are voted on at the beginning of each school year by their classmates. These people elected work with the class moderators to make the school year fun for each individual class in smaller ways.

INDEX & ADS

"Being a part of yearbook has made me feel more involved with the school by interviewing kids, taking pictures of big/small events, and working with people from all grades."

- Jeralyn Dravet

Editors Haley Schrager, Jeralyn Dravet, and Mari Biscocho with Advisor Ms. Marjorie Brewer.

Who doesn't want to be recognized?

Yearbook is pop-tarts, deadlines, pizza, templates, bread sticks, fonts, pasta, color schemes, doughnuts, friends, pudding, and most of all great MEMORIES. And not just for the members of the yearbook staff. This also includes every student and faculty member at Andrean High School. This yearbook is full of memories of all the GOOD TIMES that have happened throughout the year. This year the yearbook staff attended a yearbook workshop at Indiana Wesleyan College in Merrillville. At the WORKSHOP, the staff members split up and each went to a variety of different classes people could participate in to learn something new. Some of these classes included photoshop, theme development, captions, layout design, and an editors meeting.

Yearbook is one of the fun ways to be involved with the school. People get to take pictures and LEARN from the players and members what actually is going on in the sport or activity. Templates and designing pages is a way for creative and artsy people to put their ideas into play. They choose the colors, fonts, and pictures that are used on the page they are designing. They add their own fun captions to spice up the page. The more MEMBERS that get involved makes the load easier for everyone else. No one wants all the pressure at the end of a deadline because if the deadline is not met then it may be the END OF THE WORLD for the yearbook staff. If people want to make sure that they are seen in the yearbook then they should join and create their own memories that will last a lifetime.

Congratulations Andreas Class of 2012

Nick,

We are so proud of you.
Love, Mom & Dad

A color photograph of a young woman with blonde, wavy hair, smiling. She is wearing a white halter-neck dress with a decorative, possibly sequined or beaded, bodice. A red sash with the word 'ANDREAN' in white capital letters is draped across her chest. She is also wearing a small tiara or crown on her head. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The photo has rounded corners and a thin black border.

Empty Without You

The hardest part of holding on, is learning to let go
 The songs that once were nursery rhymes, have turned to rock and roll
 From the moment that we held you, something deep inside us changed
 Our hearts had changed forever, and would never be the same
 We lived our lives with no meaning, Strong and unafraid
 We felt the world our oyster, to take pearls and swim away
 Where has all the time gone? Memories of the past
 Like an hour glass turned over, the grains of sand won't last
 Our world is empty without you, we feel alone and yes afraid
 You changed our world for better, and it will never be the same
 The jammy's with the footie's, Have changed to gowns and heels
 We remember your cute laughter, when we tickled and you squealed
 We remember the things you told us and all that you would say
 We long for more tomorrow's, But yearn for yesterday's
 We watched as you would struggle, and go from day to day
 You stayed strong as we were troubled, your resolve it would not fade
 We look back with pride at what you've done, and who you have become
 You stayed true to your convictions, and never did succumb
 Where did all our time go, Memories of the past
 From little girl to Lady, the years have moved to fast
 So as you move onward, in the progression of your life
 And feel the weighted burden, of some grief and of some strife
 Despair for not and call on us, so we may ease your pain
 Because our world is empty without you and your love our only gain
 Love always
 Dad and Mom

In loving memory of

If tears could build a stairway
and thoughts a memory lane
I'd walk right up to heaven
and bring you home again
No Farewell words were spoken
No time to say good-bye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why.
My heart's still active in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know.

But now I know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today

A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay.
God knows why, with chilling touch
Death gathers those we love so much.
And what now seems so strange and dim
Will all be clear, when we meet Him.

I Knew you for a Moment

Coming into Andean, we didn't know what to expect. We didn't know how to open our lockers right away. We couldn't memorize the ROTATING SCHEDULE. We didn't realize that there wasn't air conditioning until we were sitting in the hottest classrooms. We didn't know that we would be served the same fries every day of the week and chicken every Wednesday. We weren't told how hard we would have to work to get where we needed to be, but we were promised that coming to Andean would be WORTH IT.

Speaking for the rest of the class, the best thing about Andean is how well the classes grow together. We become a FAMILY, including the teachers, no matter how crazy we drive each other sometimes. If we think about it, we spent most of our days at school with these people, making memories and supporting each other whether it's through Andean's sports, academic teams, or other various activities. What makes leaving high school so difficult is SAYING GOODBYE to these people and the place where we spent working hard, hardly working, and cramming for tests. But like they always say, it's never "goodbye", it's "see you later." They can take us out of Andean but we will always be fellow NINERS. Like the touchdown Jesus mosaic that spreads His arms in a welcoming embrace, Andean will always welcome us back as we become future Alumni. As PQ would say, it is our "DOMICILE."

And now, here we are. This is the time where we have to let go. By leaving Andean, we leave our family of four years, move forward with our future endeavors, and take on the world.

IT'S NOT THE END.
IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING.
CONGRATULATIONS
CLASS OF 2012.
WE MADE IT!

WAVES OF CHANGE Former Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, who had been in power since 1981, was ousted in 2011. He was later put on trial for allegedly ordering the killing of protesters. EGYPTIAN PROTESTERS Waving their national flag and shouting slogans, thousands crowded Cairo's Tahrir Square to demand political change as anger grows with the military rulers over the slow pace of reform. TOGETHER IN PROTEST The flags of Syria, Tunisia, Yemen, Egypt and Libya were painted on participants' palms during a demonstration in Yemen.

ARAB SPRING

PROTESTS ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST brought changes to Arab nations large and small. Uprisings began in Tunisia, where, as 2010 ended, a young vendor protesting the confiscation of his wares set himself on fire. Discontent spread to Egypt and Yemen as 2011 began, and in the months that followed those governments and leaders from Bahrain, Libya and Syria were under siege. By year's end, the presidents of Tunisia, Egypt and Yemen had stepped down and Libya's Moammar Gadhafi and his son Mutassim had been assassinated. Tunisians went to the polls in October 2011 and the Egyptian election took place just a month later. The protests continued despite high costs: thousands of lives (5,000 in Syria alone) and billions of dollars were lost.

10 YEARS LATER Dedication ceremonies for the families of victims marked the anniversary of the attacks on the World Trade Center, while the 9/11 Memorial on the 16-acre site of the former WTC complex opened to the public the following day. The memorial's reflecting pools, set within the footprints of the original twin towers, are surrounded by names of the nearly 3,000 victims. MEDAL OF HONOR

Marine Corporal Dakota Meyer was awarded the Medal of Honor after saving 36 lives in Afghanistan. MORTGAGE RATES AND FORECLOSURES Housing prices continued to fall as more than a quarter of all American homeowners owed more on their mortgages than their homes were worth. Despite interest rates as low as 4%, home ownership continued to decline. OCCUPY WALL STREET After gaining the world's attention with an online presence in addition to gathering in NYC's financial district, protesters disturbed by growing income inequality and wealth distribution in the United States between the wealthiest 1% and the rest of the population replicated occupations from coast to coast. POTENTIAL GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN

The Budget Control Act of 2011 was passed on August 2, bringing a conclusion to the debt-ceiling crisis, which had threatened to lead the United States into sovereign default. STONE OF HOPE The August, 2011 dedication of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial in Washington, DC honors Dr. King's contributions and vision for all to enjoy a life of freedom, opportunity and justice. UNEMPLOYMENT While January 2012 data showed a national unemployment rate of just 8.3% — the lowest in more than three years, economists warned that the encouraging report might be the result of factors like discouraged job seekers giving up the hunt for work as much as economic growth.

OSLO ATTACKS People laid flowers in memory of the victims of a pair of attacks in Norway that claimed 76 lives on July 22. A shooting spree at a youth summer camp occurred just two hours after a car bomb explosion near the Prime Minister's office. EUROPEAN DEBT CRISIS Financial woes abroad continued as investors feared government debt levels precluded some countries' abilities to prevent economic collapse. Greece, Ireland and Portugal received a wave of aid from the European Financial Stability Facility in October, 2011. RACE TO THE WHITE HOUSE As many as 10 legitimate candidates vied for the Republican party's presidential nomination in 2012.

GOOD-BYE HARRY POTTER

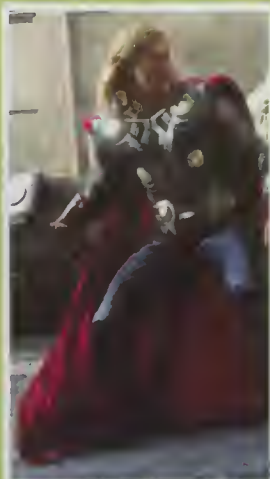

THE END OF AN ERA Harry Potter's movie franchise came to an end with the release of its final instalment in July 2011. The series became the highest grossing franchise in domestic box office history, accumulating $2.4 billion in America and $7.7 billion worldwide. Though we have to say good-bye to Harry and friends as the Potter films come to a close, Muggles can continue to enjoy the world of Harry Potter through the additions of the Wizarding World Theme Park at Universal Studios in Orlando, Florida and JK Rowling's new online experience, Pottermore.

ADELE Billboard's Artist of the Year released her second album, 21, which immediately topped the charts and remained there for 13 weeks to become the year's best-selling vocal album. An October vocal cord hemorrhage required microsurgery, forcing the 21-year-old Brit to take a break from performing, but she sang at the Grammys where her six nominations turned into six wins.

AGAINST OWNERS in both the NBA and NFL. Sports fans feared the worst but both leagues were able to agree in time to save most of their regular seasons. In the NBA, the focus was primarily on cutting player salaries to help struggling teams. Both sides remained far apart on just about every major issue. They settled in late November, agreeing to a 66-game schedule, with the first games set for Christmas Day, cutting two weeks off the regular season. The NFL lockout lasted from March 11 to July 25. Once an agreement was reached, the players won additional benefits; the continuation of a 16-game regular season schedule, improvements in player safety and increased injury protection. Almost as soon as an agreement was reached, trades, deals, cuts and contracts were made.

IT STARTED SO INNOCENTLY. IT consultant Sohail Athar (@ReallyVirtual) had moved to remote Abbottabad, Pakistan to escape the rat race. On May 1, 2011, he tweeted about a late-night military operation involving helicopters hovering over the city. While Navy Seals were involved in a firefight on Osama bin Laden's compound, Athar was lightheartedly complaining that the copters were keeping him awake. Unknowingly, he was the first to report the mission using Twitter. The attack on the 38,000-square-foot compound was followed by bin Laden's burial at sea.
